MAYSVILLE, KY., MAY 31, 1870

Pending the ratification of the Thirteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States we contended that its second clause would, if adopted, enable Congress to legislate within the States to establish and enforce the social and political equality of the negro with the Caucasian race. By this we meant nothing more than that Congress could under that clause legislate to abolish all social and political distinctions founded on race, color, or previous condition of servitude. The laws of many of the States excluding negroes from the exercise of the right of suffrage and from holding office constituted the political inequality referred to. The laws prohibiting marriage between the races and excluding the negro from the jury box, and other similar provisions adverse to the negro constituted the social inequalities between the races which we contended Congress would have power to abolish. We believed that Congress would have power to secure to the negro the right of domicile within the States, an equal right with the whites to the facilities afforded by common carriers, public hotels, etc., and in all respects to make the races equal before the law. This was sufficient to secure our settled hostility to the Amendment, though at the time we favored the recognition by the State of the freedom of the negro—which had then become an unwelcome fact, slavery existing only in its disadvantages to the master. But at the same time we regarded and treated as so much demagoguery and contemptible evasion of the question the Radical dodge of showing the impossibility of enforcing by law an equality of association without regard to difference of tastes, habits, education, and refinement, and then representing their own windmill which they had thus demolished as the Conservative argument. From this the editor of the  Freeman may readily infer that we agree with Judge Craddock, that what we understand by "social equality" is a necessary sequel of political equality; at least that it will inevitably follow political equality, though it may precede it and exist where there is no political equality. Thus far we have spoken of rights of individuals in a community as established by law. But society has conventional customs and laws unto itself, which to statute can override or obliterate. And though the public law may render the negro the social equal of the white man, it can never compel the white man to associate with the negro on terms of equality. This must be governed by individual taste. We are opposed to negro suffrage. We are opposed to the Democratic party doing anything just to catch the negro vote, that it would not be right for it to do without such a consideration. But still we think Judge Craddock talks nonsense when he says that if the Democrats ask the negroes for their votes they "must recognize them as peers in social as well as in political circles," and that it would be unjust to meet them at the ballot box as equals, and then discard them from social intercourse; and that the Democrats cannot, "with any show of propriety," "solicit the negro's suffrage and deny him a seat at their dinner tables, or a place in their parlors;"—and our reason for thinking it nonsense as applied to the negro, is that the rule does not hold good in regard to white men,—for it is beyond peradventure true that many Democrats do not recognize as "their peers in social circles" men who are politically their equals; that they do "discard from social intercourse" men whom they meet as equals at the ballot box, and they do "deny seats at their dinner tables, and places in their parlors" to men whose suffrages they solicit. And if this is the treatment meted out to some white men as a class, why cannot it not with equal consistency be applied to the negroes as a race? Mr. Craddock evidently meant that political equality not only necessitates social equality, but also personal association and intercourse on equal terms, which is nonsense, though the editor of the  Freeman may not so regard it.

Our contemporary wishes to know what we would do in a certain position, and though we do not place a very high estimate upon the fairness of the argument ad hominem, we will very candidly tell him. In the first place it is doing violence to probabilities to suppose us a candidate for office. But if we were, if we knew ourselves we would not modify any principles we honestly held, or express opinions we did not believe to be true, merely in order to get votes; and we would be still further from introducing into our family as associates for our wife and little ones persons whom we thought unfit companions for them, in order to manufacture personal popularity for ourselves. If we were a candidate for office, we would invite to a seat at our table and to a place in our parlor no man or woman, white or black, whom we would not so invite under similar circumstances if we were not a candidate. And holding that the good of society requires to be kept up a broad line of demarcation and distinction between the two races, we would not in order to get all the votes in Kentucky invite a negro to dine at our table on terms of equality. When we extend our hospitality it is with no ulterior purpose.

Having thus answered our contemporary's interrogatory and given him the benefit of such good sense as we have, he will not deem it discourteous in us to propound one in return. If the editor of the  Freeman was a candidate for office, would he invite to his table or to a place in his parlor a man whom he would reject from either place if he were not a candidate? Would he, while a candidate, in order to get a vote or to secure an influential supporter, invite a man to his table whom he would not so invite after his election by means of that vote or influence, or who he ceased to be a solicitor for popular favor? In the extension of gentlemanly courtesies and hospitalities, is he governed solely or at all by a desire to reap a direct personal advantage therefrom? We beg to be understood that we do not ask these questions because we have any doubts upon the subject.

We do not believe with our contemporary that in the case specified—rather an extreme one—we would lose the respect or the support of the negro by treating him just exactly as we would do if we did not want his vote or influence. On the contrary, if he had any sense at all, he would know that the spirit that would actuate us to invite him to dinner under the circumstances, would not be one of genuine hospitality or a heart felt recognition of him as our "peer," but one of deceit and hypocrisy and selfishness, utterly unworthy of a candid man and entirely valueless to him. He would probably have a cordial contempt for the motive that would lead us to extend such an invitation, and resent it as an insult to his intelligence that we had sought to impose on him by such hollow pretenses. The safest way to deal with men is to proceed upon the presumption that the most humble have ordinary sense and self respect, and even a negro that possessed either could not be imposed on by the paltry dodge supposed by our contemporary.

It is true, however, that the state of affairs forced upon us has the tendency to promote an equality of association among certain classes of whites and the negroes, and that this is an evil to be dreaded. But the refusal of the Democrats to solicit the negro vote can neither hasten or delay the time to which we are progressing. The Radical policy has fixed that, and the Democrats are powerless to avert the consequences.

The Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation Bill, which has been before the Senate for nearly three weeks, was passed Friday afternoon. The amendments to the bill, as it passed the House, are numerous, and the increase of appropriations considerably over a million dollars.

In putting up the salaries, the Judiciary were not forgotten, quite a handsome increase being made to the yearly compensation of all the Associate Judges, from the Supreme Court down. Treasurer Spinner did not fare so well as the other officials. A motion to put him up to eight thousand dollars was largely voted down. Mr. Sherman intimating that he had not a fraction of the responsibility devolving upon him that the Assistant Treasurer at New York had.

There seems very little hope of any reunion between the Northern and Southern divisions of the Presbyterian Church. The question that produced the breach are no longer of practical application, but the majority of the Committee on Foreign correspondence of the Southern General Assembly now in session at Louisville say that before a correspondence with the northern General Assembly can be entered into, that body "must purge themselves of errors in regard to political utterances, deliberately pronounced year after year, and which, in our opinion, was a sad betrayal of the cause and kingdom of our common Lord and head; nor can we, by special correspondence, consent to blunt the edge of this our testimony concerning the nature and mission of the church as a purely spiritual body among men."

The Frankfort Commonwealth makes unjust charges against the Democratic party, and then asks us how we can trust men who did these things. By the way, our printers made us say that the Radicals had "triumphed on every principle of the Constitution." We wrote it "trampled on." The Radicals have triumphed in spite of their contemptuous disregard of every principle of the Constitution.

On Friday the House of Representatives adopted the bill reported by the Conference Committee to enforce the Fifteenth Amendment. The Senate had previously passed the House by a vote of 123 against 25—a strict party vote. We have not seen the text of the bill, but will place it before our readers so soon as we receive a copy.

The Late Bishop Soule.—In the address of the Bishops, read by Dr. Wrightman, of South Carolina, before the Methodist General Conference at Memphis were the following remarks upon the life and character of the late Bishop Soule:

"With profound emotion we announce to you that since your last session our venerable and beloved colleague, Joshua Soule, has departed this life. His death occurred in Nashville, Tenn., March 6th, 1870, in the 47th year of his life, and the 70th year of his itinerant ministry. In many respects Bishop Soule was a remarkable man. At the time of his death he was, probably, the oldest traveling preacher in America, if not in the world; and was thus the connecting link between the Methodism of Wesley and Ashbury and that of the present day. Throughout his whole ministerial life he was eminently devoted to God, and employed exclusively in the service of the Church; often filling positions of the highest responsibility, and always honorably and usefully. His mind was clear and vigorous, his deportment dignified, and his whole course was marked by consistency, purity, and unswerving fidelity to principle. Whether viewed as a man, a Christian or minister, or as filling the highest office in the Church for forty-three years, his character deserves to be held in the highest esteem, and his memory to be perpetuated in the history of the Church. We devoutly thank God for such a man, and for the gifts and graces which rendered his eventful life so useful, his declining years and closing day so beautifully serene, so sublimely triumphant."

MADNESS! PARALYSIS! DEATH!!! may ensue from a bad preparation for coloring the hair charged with acetate of lead and sulphur. You may know them by the heavy metallic sediment which has to be shaken up before the disgusting compound can be applied. The "Journal of Chemistry" says there are thirty of these in every bottle. There is but one life in existence which contains a detestable existence, and that is CRISTADORO'S EXCELSIOR HAIR DYE, which has been carefully analyzed by Professor Chilton, and declared by him to contain no lead or any other harmful ingredients. See his manuscript certificate, at Cristadoro's, 6 Astor House, N. Y. Cristadoro's Hair Preservative, as a Dressing, acts like a charm on the hair after dyeing. Try it.

"The Keated Term" is Coming.
The summer months will very soon be fairly ushered in by their sultry weather and long train of diseases. It is the season when nature can do little in recuperating our exhausted strength and when we are equal to fortify our physique against the dangers arising from the universal prevalence of sickness. The only true safeguard is that sure and reliable tonic and invigorator, Menzies' Liver Pile, which is endorsed and recommended by the medical faculty and by unnumbered thousands of persons in every city, town and village in the country, who have tested its remedial virtues, and by its aid, procured or recovered their health. It will purify the blood and secretions cure every form of indigestion and several immediate relief in cases of dysentery, Colic, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, and kindred diseases. Provide yourself now against a time of need. Delays are often dangerous. twaw

SCROFULA CURED BY BRANDETH'S PILLS.
Brandeth's Pills penetrate the whole mass of blood, causing the expulsion of impurities. The body feels relieved from a single dose; what then may be expected from twenty? By continuing their use, the whole of the blood in time, becomes purified, and the body reconstructed from good material, and a new life is secured.

My Dear Sir: My daughter Anne, thirteen years old, has been completely cured of that horrible disease, Scrophula, which for years rendered life a torment; after all medicines and many physicians had been tried, and failed, I commenced giving her your Pills. She took them about every day for three months, constantly improving. She has now entirely recovered. Yours truly,
DANIEL LUTHER.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

News Dealer.—Mr. C. P. Shockley keeps all kinds of Magazines, &c., on Market Street Maysville, Kentucky.

The Washington precinct was unanimous, or nearly so, for Jefferson for Sheriff—a compliment from his neighborhood very gratifying.

Johnson Peck has been appointed Deputy United States Marshal, to take the census in Mason county, in place of L. B. Goggin, deceased.

There will be a match game of Base Ball on to-morrow at 2 o'clock, between the Shamrock and Stonewall Base Ball clubs, on the Forest Queen grounds.

The subscription to the Newport and Big Sandy Railroad was defeated in Campbell county on Saturday last by several hundred majority.

Base Ball.—There was a spirited and well contested match game of Base Ball played on Saturday last, between the Forest Queen's of this city, and the First Nine of Ripley. The Maysville club won the game by a handsome score.

The Democracy of Henry county have nominated Jno. G. Taylor for County Judge, E. P. Thomas, Sr., County Clerk, Polk Ditto, Sheriff, Geo. L. Petty, Assessor, Sol Tingle, Jailor, W. W. Turner, Surveyor, and Nat Hardin, Coroner.

The Masonic fraternity of Milton, Trimble county, have erected a commodious hall, which will be dedicated June 24th, (St. John's day.) Elisha S. Fitch, P. G. M. of Kentucky, will deliver the oration and conduct the services of the day, assisted by other prominent Masons of this State and Indiana.

Col. Thos. L. Jones arrived at his home in Newport on Thursday night last. It is presumed that his purpose in coming to Kentucky at this juncture is to be on the ground in readiness to accept any hostile invitation that may be extended to him. We have no apprehensions that blood will be shed in the difficulty.

Col. M. C. Taylor, of Shelbyville, left his home about six weeks ago to visit Louisville on business, since which time nothing has been heard of him, and as he had in his possession a large quantity of money, his friends are apprehensive that he has met with foul play. Col. Taylor is an unmarried man, between forty and fifty years of age.

Attempt at Murder.—On Saturday a man named McDaniel crept up behind another named Safford, with whom he had a short time before had a difficulty, and struck him on the back of the head with a heavy bar of iron. The wounded man was from Augusta, but the time was working in James Hall's plow factory. He was very badly injured. McDaniel was placed in jail and will be tried before the Mayor this morning.

A Republican club was organized in Paris on the night of Monday, the 16th inst., the following being the officers chosen: President, Henry C. Hastings; Vice President, G. W. Morris; Secretary, L. A. McClintock; Assistant Secretary, John J. Hall; Treasurer, Harrison Jackson. After the organization had been effected, the club was addressed by Henry Marks, of Frankfort, R. S. Henderson and Dr. Moore, of Paris. About two hundred names were enrolled.

A meeting of negroes was held in Newport on Thursday night in favor of the subscription of $500,000 to the Newport and Big Sandy Railroad. It was addressed by A. S. Berry, an ardent Democrat and an officer in the rebel service during the civil war. So the Democrats will recognize the negroes as legitimate voters in spite of the counsel of Mr. Craddock. We have not learned that Mr. Berry invited any of the darkeys to dine with him.

There was a deplorable lack of harmony in the Democratic primary meeting at Orangeburg on Saturday last. We are not fully informed as to the merits of the case, but understand that the row was between the friends of the candidates for sheriff. Such was the bitterness manifested that the meeting adjourned without sending delegates to the County Convention. Both parties claimed the delegation, and both determined to apply for admission into the County Convention.

A Valuable Invention.—On Saturday we were shown a working model of a "sulky harrow and cultivator, and roller" invented by Mr. James A. Casey, of this city, and patented last October. It is a very valuable machine, as any farmer will at once agree when he is informed that by moving a lever, with-out leaving one's seat in the sulky, the harrow can be lifted from the ground and cleaned when choked with weeds or grass. The harrow and cultivator can be taken out, and the roller be put in its place, and the roller can be made solid, as for small grain, or used for corn, as one pleases. A model of the machine may be seen at Richeson & Brodick's, on Market street, in this city. Mr. Casey desires to sell county rights, and persons wishing to engage in the business of making and selling this important addition to agricultural machines can address him.

Charles Lamb was in the habit of wearing a white cravat, and, in consequence, was sometimes taken for a clergyman. Once at a dinner table, among a large number of guests, his white cravat caused a mistake to be made, and he was called on to say grace. Looking up and down the table, he asked, in his inimitable and liping manner: "Is there no clergyman present?" "No, sir," answered a guest, "then," said Lamb, bowing his head, "let us thank God."

The gentleman who asked in a New England restaurant for dry Sillery, was informed that they were out of that, but had some cold cabbage.

Mason County Democratic Convention.

Pursuant to a call from the chairman of the Executive Committee, the Democratic party of Mason County met in convention at the Court House in the city of Maysville on Monday, May 30th, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the different county offices. There was a large and enthusiastic meeting, and earnest speeches were made by Judge Emory Whitaker and Hon. E. C. Phister, for unity and harmony in the Democratic ranks, which were received with unanimous favor. The convention was organized by electing Geo. L. Forman Chairman, and Thos. W. Wheatly Secretary, with F. H. Miller and Andrew T. Cox as assistants. On motion of W. W. Baldwin the delegates from the different precincts in the County were called upon to come forward and present their names with the proceedings of the primary conventions. The names of the following persons were thereupon handed to the Secretaries as the accredited delegates to the convention:

The names of the delegates as above, having been read to the convention, and each having promptly responded, it was moved that they retire to the Council Chamber to make nominations. A motion was then made by Dr. James Shackelford, that every candidate presenting his name before the convention pledges himself to abide its final decision. The motion was unanimously carried. The selection of a candidate for the office of County Judge was first in order. Jas. K. Sumrall and W. P. Coons were then put in nomination and balloted upon with the following result:

There was a misunderstanding between the delegates from the Orangeburg precinct, in regard to their instructions, and two of them did not vote on the above nominations. The nomination of Mr. Jefferson was then declared unanimous with the warm support of the members of the Convention.

For the office of county Assessor the names of S. L. Grant and W. L. Parker were put in nomination and the ballot taken with the following result:

Parker.....25
Grant.....10

The nomination of Parker was made unanimous.

There being three nominations, a motion was made and carried to drop the one candidate receiving the lowest number of on votes the second ballot. The first ballot was taken as follows:

Napoleon and Eugene.

Some years ago, a numerous company of distinguished guests often met in a villa belonging to a Spanish family, close to the Seine at Passy. The duchess was a most agreeable hostess, and her two daughters, like a double magnet, attracted all hearts. Louis Napoleon came frequently to the villa at Passy. It was soon remarked that the chief object of his visits was the older daughter of the house. The Princess Eugenie herself perceived this, but at first her Spanish pride induced her to reject the president's intentions. But the prince must have possessed something of his uncle's conquering talent, for one evening, at a brilliant assembly at the duchess's Eugene appeared in an exquisite "violet toilette"—violet in her hair, violets looping up her dress, and the historical, significant bouquet of violets in her hand. The prince understood this language of flowers; the princess had accepted his offer of marriage.—Sketches of Modern Paris.

A NICE JURYMAN.—A Quiney correspondent of the Tallahassee Floridaian relates the following incident as having occurred in Court there recently:

"A negro juror was asked by the acting States Attorney if he had taken an oath in any secret organization when acting as a juror not to bring in a verdict against any one of his color whose white man was interested. He replied he had. The Judge immediately ordered his name to be stricken from the list of jurors."

No one was recently more astonished than an enterprising Englishman in Rome, who was about to open a large hotel in the Eternal City. His intention was to call it the Hotel Byron; but the Papal authorities objected to this name on the ground that Lord Byron had been an Infidel. At the same time they were kind enough to inform him that he might call his hotel the Shakespeare House or the Newton House. He finally resolved to call it the Westminster House.

A MYSTERIOUS AFFAIR.—Last week the remains of a man were found, in a sink hole, across which some trees had been felled in Allen county, a short distance from the Barren line. They are supposed to be those of Bridges who disappeared mysteriously, last fall, from that neighborhood, and never has been heard from since. The remains were identified as those of the missing man, from the peculiar confirmation of the bones of one of the feet, which corresponded with the "club," or deformed foot of Bridges.

The whole affair is shrouded in mystery, no clue having been obtained which is likely to throw light upon the manner in which the unfortunate man came to his death. It is of course the general supposition of his neighbors, that he was murdered, but, so far, suspicion has fallen on no one, and it is probable that the mystery of his death will never be cleared up.—Georgian Times.

Koskoo.—This medicine is rapidly gaining the confidence of the people, and the numerous testimonials of its virtue, given by practitioners of medicine, leaves no doubt that it is a safe and reliable remedy for impurity of the blood, liver diseases, &c.

The last Medical Journal contains no article from Professor R. S. Newton, M. D., President of the E. Medical College, City of New York, that speaks in high terms of its curative properties, and gives a special recommendation of Koskoo to the practitioners of medicine. This is, we believe, the first instance where such medicine have been officially endorsed by the Faculty of any of the medical colleges, and reflects great credit on the skill of Dr. Lawrence, its compounder, and also puts "Koskoo" in the van of all other medicines of the present day.

The Minneapolis Tribune, of the 26th, publishes a statement from a gentleman whom it verities for as entirely trustworthy, to the effect that early in May, when he left the Verillion county on Lake Superior, at Fort Francis, for trading point on the British side of Rainy Lake, he found 2,500 British soldiers, fully equipped and provisioned. They had a large fleet of river canoes, with which they intended to make their way to the Red River country. He thinks that ere this they have reached Lake of the Woods.

"The child with the horse's head," says the New York Commercial Advertiser, "turns out to be a humbug. It is merely an infant suffering from a malformation commonly known as 'double hare-lip,' and remediable by a simple surgical operation. In other respects its head is well formed, and bears no resemblance to that of a horse, or any of the lower animals."

On Thursday a party of Winnebago Indians located on a reservation in Nebraska, made their appearance on the premises of a farmer living twenty-five miles above Sioux City, and while he was plowing shot him in the back, and afterwards severed his head from his body. Small lamps of ice swallowed whole will often check acute stomach inflammations, and will prevent nausea if heat is applied outside at the same time. Pounded ice, applied to the spine, is said to cure sea-sickness. A bit of ice will help dysphasia and all throat complaints. Great quantities of ice-water are now given in fevers and plenty of it just before going to bed, will bring on profuse perspiration, if that is desired. Ice-water is now recommended and used as a cure for dyspepsia.

Every time you fail to perform a promise, you injure your character for truth; every time you do an unkind act you harden your heart; and every time you fail to do what conscience dictates, you say to the monitor, which God placed within to warn you, "I wish I want not your warning," and soon she will withdraw and leave you stumbling, unimproved till the last trumpet shall call you forth to judgment.

DISEASES OF THE BLOOD.

"The life of the flesh is in the blood," is a Scriptural maxim that science proves to be true. The people talk of bad blood, as the cause of many diseases, and like many popular opinions of bad blood is founded in truth.

The symptoms of bad blood are usually quite plain—bad Digestion—causes imperfect nutrition, and consequently the circulation is feeble, the moist tissues lose their tone and elasticity, and the tongue becomes pale, broad, and frequently covered with a pasty, white coat. This condition soon shows itself in roughness of the skin, then in scurfy and ulcerative diseases, and when long continued, results in serious lesions of the brain, liver, lungs, or urinary apparatus. Much, very much, suffering is caused by impure blood. It is estimated by some that one-fifth of the human family are afflicted with scrofula in some form.

When the blood is pure, you are not so liable to any disease. Many impurities of the blood arise from impure diseases of large cities. Eradicate every impurity from the fountain of life, and good spirits, fair skin and vital strength will return to you.
